Many Voices, One Song Concert Benefitting Rosehedge/Multifaith Works Will Return After Two Year Hiatus

Total Experience Gospel Choir, Captain Smartypants to play in support of HIV/AIDS organization

Seattle, WA— Rosehedge/Multifaith Works is pleased to announce that their popular community concert, Many Voices, One Song, will return to First Baptist Church on Saturday, October 6, 2012, beginning at 7:00 pm. The Total Experience Gospel Choir and Captain Smartypants will be joined by Capital Hill's Motown funk band Soul Jelly, and singer/songwriter Chava Mirel. There will be an art sale during intermission and after the concert. All proceeds from the concert and art sale go to Rosehedge/MultiFaith Works and the men and women they serve. Tickets may be purchased on-line at www.rosehedge.org, by phone at (206) 787-8404, or at the door on the night of the event.

Seattle First Baptist Church is located at 1111 Harvard Avenue, Seattle, WA 98122.

The mission of Rosehedge/Multifaith Works is to serve vulnerable men and women living with HIV/AIDS and other life-challenging illnesses by providing housing, compassionate health care and supportive services that enhance the quality of their lives. With the help of over 500 volunteers annually, it is our goal to enable people who are caught in a cycle of illness, isolation and homelessness to stabilize their health and lives. Rosehedge/Multifaith Works operates on the belief that everyone deserves the dignity of a home, adequate food, health care and loving, non-judgmental support.
